DE FACTO IAS - LAW OPTIONAL WEBSITE | ANSWER WRITING PRACTICE

Year-long Law Optional Writing Practice

25 syllabus-based mini tests across six subjects, checked by Aditya Tiwari Sir and team.

Law optional answer writing for UPSC CSE Mains: 25 syllabus-based mini tests across six subjects, checked by Aditya Tiwari Sir and team, with a live guidance class at the start of each subject.

Key facts

PROGRAMME
Year-long Law Optional Writing Practice, 25 syllabus-based mini tests across six subjects

FACULTY
Aditya Tiwari Sir

NEXT OPENING
10 October 2026

WHO IT IS FOR
Students who want consistent writing practice, to write Law Optional answers with clarity and structure.

TEST FORMAT
10–12 short questions, one-hour time limit

GUIDANCE CLASS
One live class per subject by Aditya Tiwari Sir, in English, recorded on the portal

SUBMISSION
Answer copies as PDF on the student portal, before the next scheduled test

EVALUATION
Marks, written comments and model answers for each paper

JOINING
At any subject opening; complete all six subjects through the repeating cycle

How it works

1. Join at a subject opening
Each subject has its own opening. Start at any one of them and complete all six subjects and all 25 tests through the repeating cycle.

2. Attend the guidance class
Each subject begins with one live study-guidance class by Aditya Tiwari Sir on how to approach its syllabus. Classes are in English, with recordings on the portal.

3. Write the mini test
Each mini test has 10–12 short questions and a one-hour time limit. Upload your copy as a PDF on the student portal before the next scheduled test.

4. Get your copy back
Aditya Tiwari Sir and the team evaluate every copy. Marks follow each paper, with written comments and model answers. There are no test-discussion sessions.

25 tests, six subjects

Constitutional & Administrative Law	7 tests
International Law	6 tests
Law of Crime	3 tests
Law of Torts	3 tests
Contracts & Mercantile Law	3 tests
Contemporary Legal Developments	3 tests

Total: 25 mini tests across six subjects

Each mini test has 10–12 short questions and a one-hour time limit.

Enquire online: www.defactolaw.in/enquiry-form
Phone and WhatsApp: +91-8595020903 Email: defactolaw.in@gmail.com Website: www.defactolaw.in 1st Floor, Grover Chamber, 4B, near Karol Bagh Metro, Block B, Old Rajinder Nagar, New Delhi, Delhi 110005

What you get

Live guidance class
One live study-guidance class per subject by Aditya Tiwari Sir on how to approach that part of the syllabus. In English, with the recording on the portal.

Checked copies
Every copy is evaluated by Aditya Tiwari Sir and the team: marks for each paper, with written comments on your answers.

Model answers
A model answer for each paper, so you can compare your structure and content with what a UPSC-standard answer looks like.

Frequently asked questions

What is the Law Optional writing practice programme?
It is a year-long answer writing programme for UPSC Law Optional by Aditya Tiwari Sir: 25 syllabus-based mini tests across six subjects, with checked copies, written comments, model answers and one live guidance class at the start of each subject.

How many tests are there, and in which subjects?
25 mini tests: Constitutional & Administrative Law (7), International Law (6), Law of Crime (3), Law of Torts (3), Contracts & Mercantile Law (3) and Contemporary Legal Developments (3). Each test has 10–12 short questions and a one-hour time limit.

How do I submit my answers and who checks them?
Upload your answer copy as a PDF on the student portal, lecture.defactoias.com, before the next scheduled test. Aditya Tiwari Sir and the team evaluate every copy.

Are model answers and a discussion class included?
Model answers, yes: marks follow each paper, with written comments and a model answer. There are no test-discussion sessions. Each subject does begin with one live guidance class, in English, with the recording on the portal.

Can I join in the middle of the programme?
Yes. Join at any subject opening and complete all six subjects and all 25 tests through the repeating cycle.

When does the next opening start, and how do I enrol?
The next opening is 10 October 2026. To enrol or ask a question, use the enquiry form, WhatsApp, or call +91-8595020903.